Ballet Concerto's 2017 Summer Dance Workshop, June 5-23, 2017

The Workshop The Summer Dance Workshop is a dance intensive held by Ballet Concerto from June 5-23, 2017, leading up to the SUMMER DANCE CONCERT. Classes are held at the Margo Dean School of Ballet, founded in 1950, with studios at 3803 Camp Bowie Blvd., in the Fort Worth Cultural District.

The workshop provides opportunities for dancers from intermediate (minimum age 10) to advanced, professional company and adult levels. Participants experience master classes by guest teachers on an ongoing basis during June.

Sponsoring Organization Ballet Concerto is a non-profit performing arts and educational organization now in its 48th year. Founder and artistic director is Margo Dean, and associate artistic director is Webster Dean.

The company is best known for its annual SUMMER DANCE CONCERT, a free ballet concert held in an outdoor venue in Fort Worth, presenting a fully staged, professional mixed repertoire production for four nights at the end of June, this year at The Heart of the Ranch at Clearfork. Performances feature international guest choreographers and professional dancers and provide audition opportunities for Summer Dance Workshop participants.
