

AUSTRALIAN JUNIOR 2010

Supported by the Tasmanian Government through Events Tasmania
Bulletin 7: 21-01-2010

Bobby Cheng now has a one-point lead. The Under 12 World Champion defeated the Under 120 Tasmanian Champion (well, one of three of them at the moment) in a game that ended suddenly on move 26. Following Cheng at a cautious distance are Pap and Perpie (who have played him) and Yuan (who plays him today). I really should hype Cheng-Yuan to the skies and declare it is the critical game of the tournament but if I do that it will be a 17-move draw. Therefore I say Cheng-Yuan will be an Exchange Slav that is also an Exchange French and a Petroff. Do not watch it, you will be thrown out for snoring. Watch Morris-Dyer (nice easy one for Alastair after yesterday) or Dommersnes-Reid instead.

Things returned to normal in the Under 12 (apart from unnoticed illegal moves on not one but two boards!) with another comfortable win for Andrew Pan. Today he plays Martin Jack, who has recovered from an early loss to Ari Dale. Joshua Behar is outright second on 6/7 and today faces Mason Carter, making his first appearance against an outright contender. The race for the U10 title is very much open, and that includes open to U8s, such as Ethan Lim who is currently leading the U10s by half a point. Peter Wallmueller, Jamie-Lee Guo and another Under 8 Noah Gong are also doing very well there.

The Girls U18 leaders finished their mini round robin yesterday and all will now start floating down towards midfield. Simmonds and Setiabudi had a very close draw so Abbie Kanagarajah leads outright, but if things stay the way they are, all three can yet win titles. The Girls Under 12s saw both pre-round leaders involved in 70+ move epics but Savithri Narenthran maintained her perfect score, while Denise Lim is now equal second with Grace Alvares. None of these three have played each other but Savithri meets Denise today. Kashish Christian is going well in the U10 section with a two point lead, and I think Yuvini Perera has some chances in the Under 8 ... or perhaps that's just my home-state bias talking!

Event Notices

Adult Lightning: Thursday 6 pm ONO, free entry, names to Russell. 2 GMs, 3 IMs, 1 FM and Oscar the fish. Spectators (especially juniors and people with chequered socks) welcome.

Lightning and Problem Solving (Fri 22nd): Entries for those not already registered close 8:30 am for Problem Solving (starts 9) and 11:30 am for Lightning. Lightning rollcall for whole field 11:45, attendance at rollcall compulsory.

Mayoral Reception 3 pm Hobart Town Hall Fri 22nd bookings required. Bus leaves 2:30 limited seats. If you've booked and cannot make it let us know.

BBQ 6pm Sat 23rd boat park, Long Beach (which isn't actually all that long at all), Sandy Bay. Sausage sizzle, gold coin donation (real gold especially welcome) For those not esurient for snags or veggie burgers there's a woodfired pizza joint nearby.

Last Day arrangements (25th) No jentacular scrambles required, uni apartments will allow checkout until 4 pm. Luggage can be left @ venue in room behind canteen.

Last Day BBQ: Downstairs once players have finished (and entered!) their games.

Another Bonham Blunder: Your coenaculous editor got distracted by a late meal and failed to notice he had forgotten to hit send on the email containing the round 7 PGN files to Ross until three hours later! Apologies for the delay, they will be up today.

Public Holiday: Tasmania is addicted to them. Monday and Tuesday, sheesh! Buses will be scarce, they'll all be hiding.

Pointless Metric of the Day: In round 7, white won 13 of the bottom 15 Under 12 boards. This sort of run isn't quite as unusual as it seems – ignoring draws (which are fairly rare in the U12 anyway) and assuming black and white are about equally likely to win, a 13-2 or greater split from 15 wins could happen about 1% of the time. Indeed, in round 2 black won 9 of the bottom ten boards in this division. Overall in the U12s section, white has won 75 games, black 66 and 19 have been drawn. Every round has had two draws except for round five which had seven.

Reading from the book of FIBE by Kirsten Aluminiova

The FIBE world championship cycle for those over the age of senility (ie 18) is like Hotel California only daggier (not that that is possible outside the Editor's early-90s wardrobe.) You can bomb out any time you like, but you can never ever leave. Even if you lose a match against Topalov without forfeiting a single game, bomb your rating to below 1700, play like a wombat in the FIBE Random Prix and castle opposite sides against Alex Stahnke, nothing can evict you from the cycle and you still face the terrifying prospect of being crunched by Magparov in the quallies by a score of something like seven to minus fifteen. FIBE will be especially loath to part with your services if you are sort-of American and can thus be hyped as being almost as good as Bobby Fischer (or maybe even Bobby Cheng!)

The ultimate purpose of the FIBE world titles is to transfer the world championship to Topalov by any means remotely possible. The reason for this is that should the cycle return to its normal condition it is essential there be someone else to blame. At the latest congress of FIBE, held in the editor's brain as this bulletin went to print, it was decreed that the FIBE World Blitz title will be awarded tonight to the highest scoring Tasmanian in the Australian Junior Adult Blitz Event!

Actually I think the current FIDE title process isn't all that bad, but I'm sure I'm just wearing my hopelessly naïve and trusting nature on my sleeve.

ack would like to meet 15.Qh5 with h6
it then there's 16.Qxg6 - f7 is pinned.
Therefore, there was no time for ...a6 and her ...h6 or ...Ne5 was needed.

6 PM TONIGHT

BE THERE OR BE A BORING SWAT WHO IS DOING
FAR TOO MUCH PREP YOU WON'T REMEMBER FOR THAT SILLY LINE
YOUR RD 9 OPPONENT ISN'T GOING TO PLAY ANYWAY
(BECAUSE WE'LL TELL THEM)
