Resolution # 7 of 2014

(Docket#CP14-497-000)

Whereas, Dominion Transmission, Inc. has proposed a significant expansion of natural gas processing and transport facilities affecting large areas of our state via the proposed “New Market Project”; and

Whereas, the largest of the three proposed compressor stations would be located just to the north of Otsego County, at Brookman Corners in Montgomery County, less than 15 miles from the Town of Middlefield border;

Therefore, the Town of Middlefield feels the FERC’s single public hearing on this application to be inadequate, considering the scope of the proposed project and its possible effects, and calls for additional hearings including hearings located in Montgomery and Otsego Counties, and an extension of the time period for acceptance of public comments and concerns.

Furthermore, the Town of Middlefield, taking into account this project’s size and scope, as well as the potential to impact the air quality and health of the citizens of Middlefield, considers the abbreviated Environmental Assessment (EA) to be inadequate and calls for a full Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) of Dominion Transmission’s proposed “New Market Project.”
