

GiveBack: Middle East

Teacher's Assistant

Amman, Jordan

Short Description of Role:

We need English teachers assistants to help our students learn how to master the English language. Therefore, we are looking for women who have a heart and a love for all kinds of children, including children with special needs that are patient and willing to help in both group and individual learning environments.

Responsibilities:

1. Assist a main English teacher in a classroom with activities.
2. Read to the children.
3. Teach a section of our English Language Development program.
4. Help teachers with bulletin boards and other classroom environments.

Qualifications:

- High school graduate.
- Women, as we only have younger grades.
- Love for Jesus and Children.
- Having served overseas already for at least two months.
- Flexible and teachable.

Funding:

The Envision intern will need to raise all of their own support. Amount Needed to Raise: $1500

Start Date:

August 2016, six months to one year