Volunteer ESL Teacher

East Asia

Short Description of Role:

Build meaningful and impacting relationships through teaching English to children, teens, and adults in our English classes, clubs, and 1 on 1 tutoring we offer to the community. This is a great role for college students looking for an internship, early retirees looking for opportunities to serve cross-culturally, or any age in between. Come join our team as we build relationships with eternal impact!

Responsibilities:

- Teach 12-15 hours per week, a mixture of class time and one-on-one tutoring time. Class sizes range from 6-12 students. Sundays would be free to participate in local activities.
- Pre-test students to determine in which level of class they should participate.
- Prepare teaching lessons in a timely manner.
- Contribute in areas of relational outreach, discipleship, and other ministry-related activities as arranged by the team leader.

Qualifications:

- Native English speaker (with good spelling and grammar, no strong accent)
- Proven teaching abilities and/or experience (preferable to have some TEFL/TESOL teaching experience or a teaching certificate in any subject, but not required)
- Enthusiasm and a love for students
- Exhibits a lifestyle of obedience to Christ, with high moral & ethical standards
- Proactive and willing to work in cooperation with our team and its goals
- Teachable – desire to continue growing both professionally and spiritually
- Chinese fluency is helpful but not essential for our English teaching roles

Compensation:

The Envision intern will need to raise all of their own support to cover costs.

Start Date:

May 2016, 1 year
