

GiveBack: Portugal

Football Player (American Football)

Portugal

Short Description of Role:

International Workers with the C&MA coach an American football team (The Lumberjacks) in Portugal and are looking for a solid Christian football player to join them for the 2017-18 season.

Responsibilities:

1. Demonstrate and be an example of Christian character on and off the field.
2. Attend all team practices, games and official team events.
3. Motivate team players to better themselves in the sport and as people. Be sensitive to the needs of team members.
4. Meet weekly with the Portugal Ministry Team leader and attend the team prayer meetings and church services.
5. Help with any English ministries that may be in place.
6. Attend one class per week of Portuguese language study.

Qualifications:

- A strong follower of Jesus Christ with a vital, growing, spiritual relationship with the Lord
- Cooperative and learning spirit able to submit to spirit over him and adapt to a new culture
- College level experience (at least) in American Football
- Has experience specifically playing any of the following positions: Quarterback, Wide Receiver, Tight End, Defensive Back
- Between 20-30 years of age

Accountable to:

The Envision intern will be accountable to the field director and team leadership.

Compensation:

The Envision intern will need to raise all of their own support. A budget will be determined by the field leadership and Envision office. He should be willing to have a housemate(s) in order to decrease expenses.

Start Date:

September 15, 2017, 8 months