CAPO 2nd fret

words and music by Tish Hinojosa

The musical score is presented in three systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The key signature is G major (one sharp) and the time signature is 7/8. Chord diagrams are provided for the following chords: B⁷, Em, A⁷, D⁷, G, and Am.

System 1: The vocal line begins with the lyrics "I couldn't say where I'd been." The piano accompaniment provides a rhythmic and harmonic foundation.

System 2: The vocal line continues with "You taught me living a gain. I know". The piano accompaniment continues with a steady rhythm.

System 3: The vocal line concludes with "love finds a place to grow and then waits". The piano accompaniment ends with a final chord.

The musical score is presented in a standard format with three staves. The top staff is for the vocal line, the middle for the right-hand piano accompaniment, and the bottom for the left-hand piano accompaniment. The key signature is D major (two sharps) and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are: "showed you the way to my heart?". Above the vocal staff, five guitar chord diagrams are provided: Bm, E, F, G, and A. The Bm chord is on the first string, E on the second, F on the third, G on the fourth, and A on the fifth. The score shows a melodic line for the voice and a harmonic accompaniment for the piano.
