

To create your spooky story, use the spider web below to plot your slimy adventure!

3. How will the characters solve the problem and what is their biggest challenge.

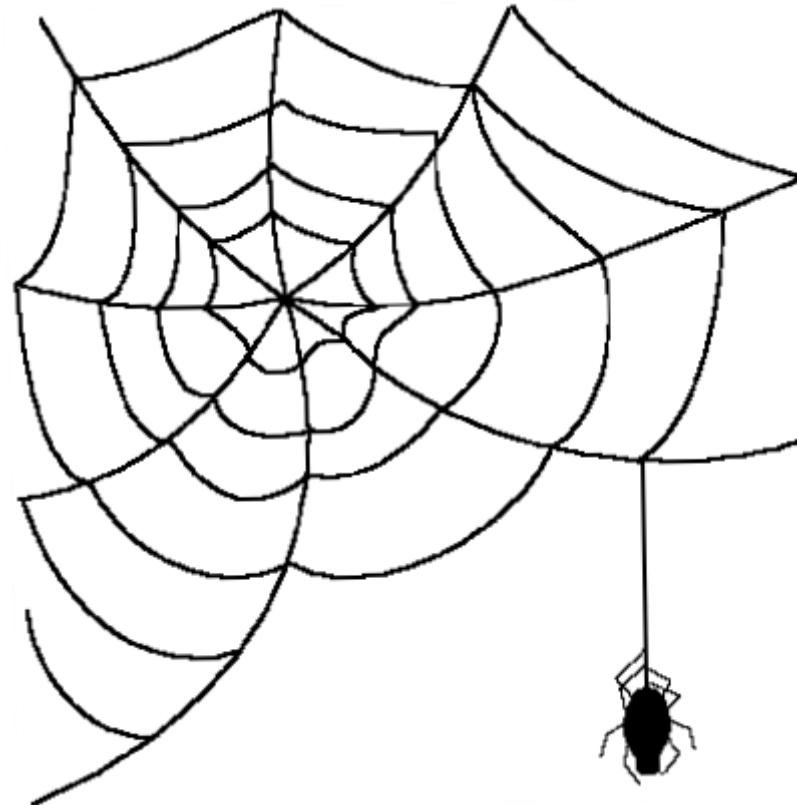

Is the problem to be buried?
Can the creepiness be banished,
Does your hero know?
Or has all hope vanished?

2. What is the problem that the characters face?

An evil plan is unfolding, it's undoubtedly gory. Is someone to the rescue within your story?

1. Introduce your characters and setting.

Who are your monsters, goblins, ghosts or ghouls? Do they have manners or mouths that drool? Do they live somewhere happy, bright and cheery, or is their adventure in someplace dreary?

4. What is the exciting scene in the story?

A battle, a treasure hunt or a search in the night? How does your hero save us from all this fright?

5. How does the story end? What do the main characters learn about themselves?

What has happened to the creepies where did they all go? Is our hero happy, what's the end of the show? Is there more slime to come, give us a hint or a peep? And will it be a while before we all get to sleep?
