

You Can, You Will, You Have

Braden Dressel, Stephen Witt

Verse1:

Db

Ebsus

You bridged the gap of distance between us and Your light
Where only lies had been heard You spoke the words of life
You took the weight of sin and shame upon Yourself
You bled and died in our place to free us from all death

PreChorus:

Fm7 Esus

Db2 Ab

So we're calling forth the Kingdom and the power of Your Word
Give us open ears to Heaven, and so let Heaven come to Earth
We're standing in the promise and the vict'ry of Your blood
Jesus, You're the firstborn, the first of many sons

Chorus:

Db Ebsus Fm7 Ab/C

You can, You will, You have defeated the grave
You can, You will, You have; forever You reign

Verse2:

You are the One and only, none can compare to You
In preeminence and power You're making all things new
The darkness cannot linger at the dawning of Your light
Our champion and defender; Your love gave birth to life

Bridge:

Fm7 Ebsus
