LUCAS BEGAN HIS MUSIC
CAREER AT A YOUNG AGE.

Roaming the halls of Long Beach Polytechnic High School, which is known for producing influential artist/actors such as Warren G, Snoop Dogg, and Cameron Diaz, among others, gave him the inspiration to try his hand at music and share it with the world. Orator worked for MTV news correspondent Sway and aided in the production of the World Famous Wake Up show on 92.3 The Beat., which quickly landed him on the map in the LA Hip-hop scene.

Today, Orator is known as one of LA's most talented DJs. With numerous celebrity fans, Orator can be seen DJing regularly at MADE events throughout Los Angeles including Nightingale, Bootsy Bellows and the now infamous Greystone Sundays.

Outside of Hollywood, Orator has also invaded the Bay Area and Las Vegas, spinning for major industry events. Orator's talent and appeal behind the turntables are not slept on. Known for keeping the bottle poppers, athletes, celebrities, and beautiful women partying into tomorrow. A party backed by Orator's sound is not one to forget.
