Your support

If you are passionate about preserving Lawrence's rich historical resources, becoming a member and help us further the cause of historic preservation throughout Lawrence and Douglas County.

As a nonprofit 501(c)(3) membership organization, the Lawrence Preservation Alliance depends on your support to help further our mission.

Preserving and celebrating our past for future generations

Whether it's a spectacular piece of architecture, a historic battlefield, a stone schoolhouse, the simple lines of a working person's home, or a public space that holds within it's walls the hopes and memories of generations, the Lawrence Preservation Alliance seeks to recognize and preserve the history that contributes to our rich and vibrant culture.

Membership

Members at each level of support receive the following benefits:

- Subscription to Lawrence Preservation, the LPA's seasonal newsletter that keeps you informed on preservation issues, events and activities.
- Invitations to LPA events, home tours, and workshops
- An invitation to our annual LPA Awards event
- An Invitation to our annual LPA members meeting
- Satisfaction that you are saving Lawrence's historic resources for generations to come
- Memberships are tax deductible.
