Community Spotlight: Meet Flor!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!

Flor is a leader in the Camp JAM program, where she helps the younger children with their creative art projects. We are so grateful for Flor’s involvement in our community!

Flor is a physician, she loves assisting Program Directors during their clinic shifts! As an aspiring healthcare professional, she plans on continuing her medical education in the future. Flor lives in Cedro Galán, Nicaragua. Flor enjoys dedicating her Monday and Wednesday evenings to improving her English skills in class levels two and three. She is an avid learner!