Dear Manna Project Community,

I want to take this opportunity to thank you for your support of Manna Project International. It is because of you that we have been able to deliver on our promise of providing essential food assistance and health care to those most in need. Your generosity is truly making a measurable difference in the lives of people around the world.

Looking back on this month, we will start a search for the organization’s next leader. During this time, I will be stepping aside from my role as Executive Director. This decision was made after a long period of reflection and prayer, and I am confident that the next leader is well-equipped to ensure the continued success of the organization.

The relationships I’ve enjoyed over this past year made it difficult to come to a decision I believe is best for the organization and myself. I am confident that under the leadership of the next ED, we will continue to grow and develop our programs, expand our reach, and scale our impact.

Over the next few months, I hope to connect with many of you, hear about your experience with MPI and discuss opportunities to continue your support of our mission—whether through volunteerism, funding, advocacy, or simply lending an ear to share your thoughts and ideas. The relationships within the communities we serve are the foundation of our work, and I am excited to see how you will continue to play a vital role in our success.

It has been a pleasure and privilege to work with you as Executive Director and I’m proud of what we’ve accomplished together. And while I may be stepping away from my specific role at MPI, I’m confident that the people of the United States and around the world will continue to see the power of communities serving communities.

Thank you to those who have accompanied us on this journey, to those who have supported us, and to those who have challenged us to be better. It is through the dedication and commitment of all of you that we have been able to serve those in need. We will continue to do so with the same level of passion and intensity.
