About us... For more than 30 years, Special Needs Arts Programs, Inc. (SNAP) has enriched the lives of individuals with developmental disabilities through music and art. In 1984, SNAP was incorporated as a 501 c (3) non-profit organization. Co-founders, Marilyn Abel and Judith Goldner, believe that art expression creates a sense of purpose and self-empowerment while also serving as an important and effective means for integrating people with disabilities into the community.

Chorus Programs
SNAP Chorus programs provide a musical experience in a safe, nurturing environment that encourages learning, self-expression, creativity and friendship for individuals with developmental disabilities.

Chorus members come together to share their love of singing and for fun and friendship. Sing Along Singers and Sing Along Chorus participate in community events and SNAP concerts.

Our Chorus programs offer a Fall session from September-January and a Spring Session from February-June. Rehearsals are once per week.

Special Artists Program
The Special Artists program brings together individuals with developmental disabilities to work on art projects. Participants work at their own pace in a supportive and fun environment.

The Special Artists Program offers Fall and Spring sessions on Saturdays.

The Special Artists classes are staffed by professional artists, special education teachers, and teenage and adult volunteers.

Participants work on a variety of projects that can include watercolor/acrylic painting, clay, wood projects and various multi-media arts and crafts. Special exhibits are planned to showcase the talent and achievement of our artists.

Special Artists has a teen program that runs in the fall, spring and summer sessions on Saturdays.

Volunteers are priceless!

“The Sing Along Chorus has influenced me more than any other group I have been a part of. Its significance to me has never waned. From providing me with incredible friends, to opening my mind to diverse individuals, and altering my perception of what music is and should be, the Chorus has provided me with an infinite assortment of extraordinary experiences and unforgettable memories which are an integral part of who I am today.” - Chorus Volunteer
