

ALLEGHENY EAST CONFERENCE YOUTH & CHILDREN MINISTRIES

Task Force Application INFORMATION SHEET

PURPOSE

The Allegheny East Conference Youth & Children's Ministries (AECYCM) Task Force summer program is designed to provide students attending an Adventist institution with a financial scholarship. This program also assist members in developing a closer relationship with Christ along with strengthening their character and qualities.

Task Force Applicants must:

- Attend an Adventist institution
- Be a high school senior or a college student
- Complete online application
- Complete all required Clearances (detailed explanation in application)
 - o Criminal History
 - o Child Abuse
 - o Federal Criminal History
 - o Verified Volunteers

DATES: June 3 – July 26, 2018

APPLICATION DEADLINE: April 1, 2018

TASK FORCE MEMBER

Responsibilities include but not limited to:

- Scholarships are awarded to the individuals through the school or college attending.
- Ground Preparation for
 - o Camp Davis
 - o Camp Meeting
- Serve as Camp Davis personnel.
- Responsible for taking Inventory for all supplies for Camp Meeting and Camp Davis.
- Assume responsibility of safety for all campers assigned to you or under your jurisdiction.
- Implement camp objectives, rules, policies, and guidelines.
- Positive Christian role model.
- Punctuality is required.
- Minister to the spiritual development of these campers that each may know Christ as savior and grow in every area of living unto Him.
- Responsible for all campers in your cabin and for each one of your campers' belongings.
- Assign bunks and introduce your campers with one another.
- Assign rules and guidelines that apply in the beginning of camp.
- When doing activities with all campers, you are expected to supervise all campers in your area.