

This past week we kicked-off our series on worship, “Flow.” Worship is our response to revelation of who God is, in giving Him the response of our lives. This extended to the both the work of our hands and the song of our hearts.

Family Time

This is time connect with one another and “be family” to one another. Make some time to share life updates with everyone in the group (or in smaller groups), testimonies or prayer requests. If a prayer request is voiced to the group, have members of your life group volunteer to pray right there in that moment. Encourage your life group to be those who are quick to pray for one another and bear one another’s burdens

Worship Time

As our sermon series is focused on worship, take some extended time to worship through singing as a group. You can have somebody lead with an instrument, or with an iPod/playlist.

You can check out this playlist for some song suggestions:

<https://open.spotify.com/user/121241339/playlist/6X2yeCanbmkJrf4r6cEe1K>

Bible Study

This past Sunday we looked at John 4:23-24, in the context of worship. Let’s dig deeper into these verses to see what it might look like to become worshippers of Jesus. We were made for worship, and are responding to the Lord as he reveals more of who he is.

Questions:

What does it mean that God is looking for worshipers and not worship?

What does it look like to worship in the Spirit?

What does it look like to worship in truth?

How might our gathered worship change in light of this?

John 4:23-24

23 Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in the Spirit and in truth, for they are the kind of worshipers the Father seeks. 24 God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in the Spirit and in truth.”

John 4:23-24

23 Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in the Spirit and in truth, for they are the kind of worshipers the Father seeks. 24 God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in the Spirit and in truth.”

John 4:23-24

23 Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in the Spirit and in truth, for they are the kind of worshipers the Father seeks. 24 God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in the Spirit and in truth.”

John 4:23-24

23 Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in the Spirit and in truth, for they are the kind of worshipers the Father seeks. 24 God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in the Spirit and in truth.”