

JANUARY 2007

Metro Parent

Serving the Families of the Portland Metropolitan Area

The International School Receives Award

The International School in Portland has been awarded the title of "International Spanish Academy (ISA)," one of only 28 schools designated as an ISA and the only private school to have achieved this status. ISAs are part of an international cooperative educational project between American schools and the Ministry of Education and Science of Spain.