Facta non verba

What a wonderful sight!

Thank you to all of the children who made the first day back to school such a magical experience. It was wonderful to have such a host of amazing costumes and was a lovely way to start the half term. Thank you also to the FOSJ for their prizes and to the judging panel. Is it just me or are these judges

Christmas Fayre

This year, on the 20th November at 2pm the Christmas Fayre is being held in the school hall. There will be a whole host of stalls and activities to do and will be a lovely way to get into the feel for Christmas! I have also heard from the elves that Santa may be around so get those wish lists ready! If anyone would like to donate an item to the Fayre we will be looking for Chocolates, bottles, toiletries and gifts for the hook a bag (either new or clean / unused toys). Thank you for your support.

Class worship

There will be no class worship this week as year 5 and 6 are both out on Wednesday. This is also the same for the class masses.

Big Sing Liturgy Thing

Yesterday, the children in years 5 and 6 had a wonderful day with 8 other schools from the Trust. There was much singing, dancing and reflection time for all of the children and you will be able to see what it was all about on our website!

I look forward to seeing you all then .

New Reception Parents open afternoon

Do you have a child who was born between 1st September 2012 and 31st August 2013? Then it is time to start thinking about school places! Why not come and have a look around St Joseph's to see if we are the place for you!

There is a new parents open afternoon on Thursday 10th November where you are able to book in and come and meet myself , chat about what the school has to offer and have a tour of the school. The 'tours' will be put into half and hour slots starting at 1.30 pm until 3pm. Please ring the office to confirm the time you would like to come. Don't worry if you cannot make it. If you give us a call we will be happy to try and arrange another time.
