Association of Washington Student Leaders Membership Benefits

There are many benefits to your school and student body as a result of becoming a member. Your affiliation fee supports various services of the Association of Washington Student Leaders and allows your school to take advantage of some special programs.

- Quality training, curriculum, and programs to support K-12 leadership development aimed at improving social and academic success for all students.
- Priority status and discounts on leadership training programs for student leaders, including AWSL Summer Leadership Camps for students in middle level and high schools, Summer CheerLeadership Camps, Middle Level Regional and La Chispa Workshops, and the annual AWSL Fall Leadership Conference.
- Subscription to In the Loop, our electronic newsletter. Each issue highlights upcoming program opportunities, practical activities, helpful adviser resources and timely tips.
- Access to a variety of leadership resources available through the Association of Washington Student Leaders. Timely communication regarding our innovative programs such as the emerging Latino student outreach activities and elementary leadership. Copies of special publications produced during the year. A live person to talk with each time you call our office, or a timely response when leaving a phone message.
- Discounts on training programs for activity advisers that are sponsored by the Association of Washington Student Leaders.
- Eligibility for AWSL Recognition and Award programs, including Adviser of the Year and AWSL Honor Roll.
- Improved communication through direct mailings to the ASB Adviser.
