You can attend one or both of the following sessions:

Session 1: June 18 – June 19 “24 Hours of Leadership Learning”

This workshop begins Monday, June 18 at 2:00 p.m. and concludes at 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, June 19. In a 24-hour period you'll dive into leadership curriculum, class structure and philosophy. In addition to workshop instruction with active participation, your shared meals in a retreat setting will give you the opportunity to network and learn from each other. Dinner, breakfast, lunch and lodging are included in the registration.

Registration = $250 per person/AWSL Member Schools. ($275 non-member schools)

12 Clock Hours available for $24.

Session 2: June 19 – June 20 “Drafting your Roadmap”

This workshop begins Tuesday, June 19 after “24 Hours of Leadership Learning” adjourns. Those who stay for this session will receive the gift of time! Participants can reflect on personal and school philosophy of leadership class, outline a calendar for the 2018-19 school year, and pick the brains of experienced leadership facilitators who will serve as coaches. This session will conclude at noon on the 20th. Dinner, Breakfast and lodging are included in the registration.

Registration = $100 per person/AWSL Member Schools. ($125 non-member schools)

8 Clock Hours available for $16.

So, where and what is Chewelah Peak Learning Center?

Operated by the Association of Washington School Principals, Chewelah Peak Learning Center opened its doors in 2003 to serve students and educators in a unique, retreat setting. Located one hour north of Spokane, it provides a beautiful backdrop for reflection, learning and taking a deep breath after a busy year.
