

Fall Student Leadership Day 2018

Create a Culture ▪ Close the Gap ▪ Ensure Safety ▪ Engage the Community

| Date | School | City |
|----------------------|--|-----------|
| Tuesday, October 2 | Desert Hills Middle School (at South Hills Church) | Kennewick |
| Tuesday, October 2 | La Venture Middle School | Mt Vernon |
| Wednesday, October 3 | Wilson Middle School | Yakima |
| Friday, October 5 | Frontier Middle School | Vancouver |
| Tuesday, October 9 | Salk Middle School | Spokane |

We believe students are key players in a school's drive for school success. Working with school staff, students can contribute to creating a culture, closing the gap and ensuring safety. Explore how this can happen at your school in this highly engaging workshop. Topics include:

- Confronting bullying behavior and improving school climate
- Leadership styles, the role of student leaders and officer responsibility
- Teambuilding, effective meetings and project planning skills
- Assembly techniques and crowd involvement
- Idea exchange

Additionally, attending adults and students will have time to exchange ideas and information regarding what is working in schools.
