Summer Leadership Days
Bringing AWSL to your site

With the inability to offer residential summer programs on our campuses, AWSL can come to your campus! Combining their skills, talents and expertise, our summer program staff are ready to come to your team to facilitate lessons, activities and school year prep.

The Summer Leadership Day program is an energizing one-day or two-day experience to prepare your team for the upcoming the year. Build your team and create plans for the upcoming school year. Areas include self/social awareness, project planning, teambuilding, as well as developing school climate, leader responsibility and specialized topics for your school.

In keeping with Phase 3 protocols, we can offer a session on your campus for up to 45 students.

What We Provide
- Curriculum, activities, and AWSL supplies
- Areas of focus:
  - Self and Social Awareness (SEL Framework)
  - Team Building
  - Project/Event Planning for the start of school year
  - Customization specific to your school
- Two facilitators for groups up to 30 students
  - additional fee for serving up to 45 students
- A follow up check-in by an AWSL staff member once the year begins
