

SLO NATURAL FOODS CO-OP
The Little Store Worth Finding
With Community at Heart

Should
we move or stay?

WE'RE STAYING PUT

For now...

Come to the Annual Members Meeting on June 3rd, sit in on a monthly Board Meeting, ask Gwen or email us at board@slonaturalfoods.coop and ask what's going on.

While it's not the right time to make a big move to a new space right now, we're excited to start planning for improvements to the existing store. Changes you will start to see in 2017 include:

- Easier Access with New Sliding Front Doors
- A Little More Pizazz and Front Curb Appeal – With higher visibility and more pleasant entry environment.
- Tranquil Outdoor Seating Area, so you can enjoy our
- Improved Selection of “grab and go” items
- New Cheese Case – with more specialty selections, including even more local options
- Easier Bulk Shopping - Gravity Bins are coming

Got More Ideas? We'd love to hear them. Write a comment in the suggestion box, join a board meeting, talk to Gwen, or email board@slonaturalfoods.coop.

We know that many of you have lives outside of social media, though when you are online, we'd love for you to “Like Us” and keep in touch via Facebook and Instagram.

Where can you get updates? See more on our website SLONaturalFoods.coop and keep an eye out on our email Newsletter every other week. If you aren't getting it already, go to our website, SLONaturalFoods.coop, to the newsletters page, or email board@slonaturalfoods.coop and we'll sign you up.

Thanks for your ongoing support of SLO Natural Foods
The Little Store Worth Finding
With Community at Heart