BUDGET IMPLICATIONS

General cost estimates are provided below but vary according to the scope of the project and the potential need to involve outside counsel.

Standard Cost Estimates

- Full Trademark Search (recommended): $1,000
- Application filing fee for single class: $325

Outside Counsel Estimates (if needed)

- Review and recommendation for trademark search: $2,000-$4,000
- Attorney’s fees for search and registration process: $3,000 minimum
- Additional fees if US Patent and Trademark Office issues an office action or if a third party opposes the application.

Are you willing to invest money to register the mark? Yes ☒ No ☐

You will be required to show that you are continuing to use the mark between the 5th and 6th years of the registration. A trademark registration is valid for 10 years, and the registration can then be renewed for additional 10-year periods as long as you are still using the mark. There are nominal fees associated with maintaining the registrations as described herein.

Upon registration, you are required to enforce against third parties that use the marks without permission in order to maintain rights in the marks. Infringement matters can be resolved through cease and desist letters, but also could include litigation that can be costly.

Are you willing to enforce a trademark (including costs, if any), in the event that an infringement is found? Yes ☒ No ☐
