

THE WAYS OF SIN!

—Being a helpful Guide for new Watchdogs of the Faith—

PRIDE. Pride is wantin' something better, more, or higher than your fellows call theirs. Pride doesn't value something for itself; Pride values a thing only in contrast to what others have.

INJUSTICE. What's always wrought out of Pride. Nobody in the Faith should be hungry when someone else is eatin'—and that goes for everything else, too. Could be about money, could be about someone's role in life, could be about a Faithful's righteousness—Pride brings ruin to them all.

SIN. This ain't just unfair—it's plain wrong. The King of Life takes exception to cases of Violence, Sex (outside marriage), Deceit, Disunity, Apostasy, Blasphemy, Worldiness, and Faithlessness that fall outside his Laws. Any one of 'em opens a branch up to demonic attacks.

FALSE DOCTRINE. Sin is wrong—and sooner or later, the Faithful always realize it. But instead of confessin' to a Steward and gettin' right with the King of Life, they create False Doctrine to justify the Sin. On purpose or not, it's a problem and can spread to others.

CORRUPT WORSHIP. A tell-tale sign of False Doctrine. Heresy about the Faith taints everything a Brother or Sister practices, even if the connection ain't made plain.

FALSE PRIESTHOOD. Now things are gettin' serious—you got others in on the heresy, too. Your heretic's got a following of at least two others, pervertin' the tradition of Three in Authority, whether they mean to or not.

SORCERY. Even Corrupt Worship has power, when it's backed up by numbers—it's who's listenin' you got to worry about. At heart, the leader of a cult wants to bring a congregation to ruin, and demons are itchin' to help.

HATE & MURDER. This is more than passion and rage. Hate is a head-on assault on the Faithful by demonic forces, and Hate leads to Murder. Murder's got a different flavor than regular killings—senseless, ritualistic, or maybe ties to the occult. Always, it's meant to bring a branch to its knees.

*When the Faithful murder the Faithful,
it means things have gone as wrong as they can go.*

THE WAYS OF SIN!

—Being a helpful Guide for new Watchdogs of the Faith—

PRIDE. Pride is wantin' something better, more, or higher than your fellows call theirs. Pride doesn't value something for itself; Pride values a thing only in contrast to what others have.

INJUSTICE. What's always wrought out of Pride. Nobody in the Faith should be hungry when someone else is eatin'—and that goes for everything else, too. Could be about money, could be about someone's role in life, could be about a Faithful's righteousness—Pride brings ruin to them all.

SIN. This ain't just unfair—it's plain wrong. The King of Life takes exception to cases of Violence, Sex (outside marriage), Deceit, Disunity, Apostasy, Blasphemy, Worldiness, and Faithlessness that fall outside his Laws. Any one of 'em opens a branch up to demonic attacks.

FALSE DOCTRINE. Sin is wrong—and sooner or later, the Faithful always realize it. But instead of confessin' to a Steward and gettin' right with the King of Life, they create False Doctrine to justify the Sin. On purpose or not, it's a problem and can spread to others.

CORRUPT WORSHIP. A tell-tale sign of False Doctrine. Heresy about the Faith taints everything a Brother or Sister practices, even if the connection ain't made plain.

FALSE PRIESTHOOD. Now things are gettin' serious—you got others in on the heresy, too. Your heretic's got a following of at least two others, pervertin' the tradition of Three in Authority, whether they mean to or not.

SORCERY. Even Corrupt Worship has power, when it's backed up by numbers—it's who's listenin' you got to worry about. At heart, the leader of a cult wants to bring a congregation to ruin, and demons are itchin' to help.

HATE & MURDER. This is more than passion and rage. Hate is a head-on assault on the Faithful by demonic forces, and Hate leads to Murder. Murder's got a different flavor than regular killings—senseless, ritualistic, or maybe ties to the occult. Always, it's meant to bring a branch to its knees.

*When the Faithful murder the Faithful,
it means things have gone as wrong as they can go.*