Author Index.

Ainslie, James L. doctrinal succession. 157.
Alexander, Joseph A. law and testimony. 343.
-----. national bias. 408.
Allen, Michael and Scott R. Swain. Ursinus. 468.
-----. the relation of Scripture to systematics. 469.
Alsted, Johann Heinrich. the difference between heretics, pagans and schismatics. 260.
Ames, William. ordinances of nature in worship. 21.
Anderson, John. attainments. 72, 429.
-----. separation. 198.
-----. withdrawing from communion. 388.
-----. secession. 389.
-----. historical succession. 391, 391.
-----. uniformity. 393.
Arminius, James. creeds. 412.
Aspinwall, William. succession. 320.
Augustine. speaking ecclesiastically. 59.
-----. historical testimony. 194, 415.
-----. testimony of the church. 470.
Ayton, Thomas. human testimony. 320.

Backus, Irena. Zwingli and tradition. 142, 143.
Baillie, Robert. inward grace not a term of communion. 118.
Baird, Samuel J. history is the voice of God. 373.
Bannerman, James. supported separation on constitutional grounds. 290.
-----. lawful ecclesiastical power. 470.
Bavinck, Herman. change of view regarding the church at Reformation. 31.
-----. belief in multiformity of the church. 31.
-----. relation of local to universal church. 230.
Beattie, Francis. creeds interpret Scripture. 443.
à Beckett, William, Jun. Luther on canon law. 156.
Bernard, G.W. cause of English Reformation. 360fn.
-----. martyrs only died for truth. 396.
Beza, Theodore. authority of councils. 93.
-----. historical succession. 145, 302.
IGNORANT—YES! COVENANTER—NO!

---. ecclesiastical jurisdiction. 156.
---. Latin challenged the national jurisdiction of particular churches. 162fn.
---. marks of the church sometimes obscure. 299.
---. marks obscured by Antichrist. 300.
---. historical succession may be in just a few. 300.
---. we must quit the corrupt assembly. 301.
---. separation not to make a new church. 303.
---. false pastors follow their own inclinations. 304.
---. testimony of the true church to be esteemed. 308.

à Brakel, Wilhelmus. Scripture not dependent upon the church for its truth. 475.
---. authority and power of councils. 475.
---. spiritual authority of the church. 476.
---. power of synods to set terms of communion. 476.
---. on being confessional. 477.
---. historical succession. 478-480.
---. testimony of the martyrs. 481.
---. Pope is the Antichrist. 481.
---. predictive prophecy remains. 482.

Brecht, Martin. Luther receives office. 456fn.
Brightman, F.E. terms of communion in the early church. 118.
---. duration of catechumenate in the early church. 120.
Brook, Benjamin. account of Thomas Parker. 423.
Brown, John [of Haddington]. creeds to be received with divine faith. 98.
---. creeds are standing testimonies for truth and terms of communion. 295.

Bullinger, Henry. return to historical church. 134.
---. Papists have fallen from historical continuity. 157.
Burman, Franciscus. judgment of discretion. 457.
Calderwood, David. former judgments of the church not to be relinquished without Scriptural reason. 39.
---. every point of the creed is a note of profession. 40.
---. declining state no time to change confession even to resist error. 41.
---. catechizing for confessional conformity. 451.
Calvin, John. effeminate men are oppressed. xvi.
---. obligation of kings to the true religion. 19.
---. veils a natural sign of distinction. 22fn.
---. in what sense Rome a true church. 25.
the use of “churchly” language. 36fn, 40fn, 105.

Testimonies of the saints are many guides. 62, 143.

Testimony sealed by the martyrs. 64, 395.

Need to walk by the same rule. 68.

Historical succession. 88, 106, 285, 289.

Protestants have genuine title to historical church. 92, 309.

Identity or “face” of the church. 93fn, 223, 224.

Church the mother of believers. 108.

Imitating the faithful. 129.

Doctrine to be joined to zeal. 179.

Extraordinary times when church not duly constituted. 190, 255, 256, 258.

Sound interpretation in the church. 192, 315.

Catholic visible church relation to the particular visible church. 214, 226, 256.

Faithfulness. 312, 314.

Carnal descent without faith is of no avail. 313.

True church demonstrates faithfulness. 315.

Historical identity. 317, 319.

Law and testimony. 348, 349fn.

Analogy of faith. 459.

Need to be instructed in theology in order to understand the Bible. 469.

Campbell, William. Historical continuity of Seceders. 53

Dissent from corrupt constitutions. 54.

Cargil, Donald. Separation not to set up new church. 370.

Posterity to follow their forefathers. 383.

Case, Thomas. Voice of Christ in the churches. 103.

Separation from Romish Antichrist. 254.

Cheminz, Martin. Value of the witness of the ancient church. 141.

Clarkson, Andrew. Dissent from corrupt constitutions. 52.

Dissent no grounds for new church. 265.

Claude, Jean. Protestant church no new church. 56.

Clement, of Alexandria. No Scripture free from misinterpretation. 71.

Clement, of Rome. Writing to particular church. 155fn.

Crofton, Zachary. How to achieve right understanding. 17.

Scots opposed both corrupt and false constitutions of the church. 273.

Cunningham, William. Historical succession. 147.
IGNORANT—YES! COVENANTER—NO!

——. doctrinal development a pernicious lie. 147fn.
——. supported separation on constitutional grounds. 290.
Dabney, Robert L. faithful scripture translation depends upon church. 61.
Delitzsch, Franz. meaning of “testimony” in Isaiah. 344.
Dick, John. purpose of creeds. 73.
——. terms of communion. 294.
Dickson, David. careful imitation of forefathers are true followers. 129.
——. union and concord of the church. 131.
Downname, John. it is theft to take no care for the good name of others. 18fn.
Durham, James. footsteps of the flock. 64.
——. duly constituting the church. 191.
——. historical succession. 193, 321, 322.
——. churches coming out of apostasy. 213.
Edwards, John. catholic visible church divided into particular visible churches. 162.
——. national churches. 166.
Elliott, Charles. the Roman church a particular church with no promise of perpetuity. 155fn.
Engelsma, David. creeds and Scripture interpretation. 444.
Fergusson, James. walking by the same rule. 70.
——. using confessional language. 232.
——. lineal and doctrinal succession of Protestants. 237.
——. historical succession. 239.
——. the use of uniformity in worship. 387.
Fesko, J.V. need of history to interpret creeds. 415.
Fonda, Jesse. creeds and terms of communion. 116.
Forrester, Thomas. historical succession. 239.
——. no true succession without doctrinal faith. 240.
——. extraordinary times require extraordinary means to restore particular churches. 255.
Gereb, Zsolt. identity as a confessional issue. 494.
——. creeds interpret scripture. 494.
Gerhard, Johann. care in our use of language. 59.
——. lineal and historical succession. 235.
Gillespie, George. veiling a natural sign. 21fn.
——. predictive prophecy. 22.
——. content of confessions and catechisms. 121.
——. faithfulness a mark of the true church. 260.
Henry, Matthew. quote on those spiritual blind. 124.

Henry, Matthew. law and testimony. 345.

Herron, Andrew. right of the church to hold General Assembly. 80fn.

Hill, Thomas. ministerial authority of the church. 98.

Hodge, Archibald A. corporate confession. 446.

Hodge, Charles. General Assembly has original jurisdiction in all constitutional matters. 164fn.

Hodge, Charles. perspicuity of Scripture. 485.

Hodge, Charles. lineal and historical descent of Presbyterian church in America. 249.

Hodge, Charles. form of doctrine has historical character. 486.

Hodge, Charles. the creedal roots of the Old Side-New Side controversy. 488.

Henderson, Alexander. the historical form of the Church of Scotland. 56.

Henderson, Alexander. catechism before communion. 119.

Goode, William. the presumption of consensus of interpretation valuable. 428.

Graham, John. historical succession of ordinary ministry. 213.

Graham, William. no right of descending societies to alter contracts founded on divine positive institution. 101.

Ha, Polly. history provides identity. 406.

Harbaugh, Henry. history versus religious forgetfulness. 238.

Hart, Darryl G. and John R. Muether. creedal subscription. 487.

Hatch, Edwin. early churches organized along provincial territories. 159fn.
IGNORANT—YES! COVENANTER—NO!

——. New Side rejection of synodal authority in making rules for ordination. 488.
——. New Side rejection of power of synod to set jurisdiction. 489, 491.
——. New Side misunderstands presbyterial authority versus synodal authority. 490
——. New Side confuses power of order with power of jurisdiction. 490.
——. New Side rejected power of synods to bind. 492.
——. Gilbert Tennent, leader of New Side, both illogical and extreme. 492.

Hodge, J. Aspinwall. General Assembly has original jurisdiction in all constitutional matters. 164fn.
Hoenecke, Adolf. status to be accorded confessions in the church. 107.
——. confessions must bind all members of a particular church. 111.

Holmes, Stephen R. sola scriptura and tradition. 329.

Houston, Thomas. uniformity in doctrinal profession and practice. 241.

Hutcheson, George. lineal or historical succession. 313.

Hutchison, Matthew. covenant renewal by Reformed Presbyterians. 286.

Hyde, Daniel. Protestants left Rome to return to true church. 133.

Jacobs, Henry E. dogmas set forth in confessions. 103.
——. teaching contrary to the historical teaching of a particular church breaks unity with it. 188.
——. conciliar authority not separate from Scripture. 467fn.

Kamps, Marvin. Dutch Seceders separated to return to true church. 421.
——. Dutch Seceders sought consensus of history. 421.
——. liberals considered church history irrelevant. 422.
——. Dutch Seceders sought historical continuity. 422.
——. creeds having binding authority. 427.
——. creeds are a response to past heresies. 427.

Keddie, Gordon J. relation of a church to history. 510.

Kieffer, Moses. Reformed church does not ignore history in confessing the truth. 439.

Knox, John. historical succession of particular churches. 134.
——. historical testimony to marks of church. 273.

Köstlin, Julius. Luther’s concern for plain sense of Scripture. 454.
------. Luther acted as a doctor of the church. 455.

------. evident reason as subordinate authority. 461fn.

------. Luther did not reject subordinate authority of reason. 462.

Krauth, Charles P. each particular church is obligated to seek the most perfect form of Christianity. 32.

------. principle of sola scriptura. 464.

------. value of human testimony in theological controversy. 464.

------. church testimony subordinate to divine testimony. 465.

Kuyper, Abraham. obligation to have a common confession of faith. 77.

------. value of lineal or historical institutions. 82.

------. church has organic continuity. 83.

------. transmitting a confess a generational work. 96.

Lamain, William C. Scripture given for rational men and to be used by such. 304.

Lazareth, Henry. sola scriptura no plea against tradition rightly used. 140.

Lee, F. Nigel. Anabaptists reject historical continuity. 408.

Lim, Paul Chang-Ha. use of history for theological justification common amongst Puritans. 56.

------. Puritan concern to catechize before communion. 451.

Luther, Martin. church fathers subordinate to Scripture. 139.

------. church councils subordinate to Scripture. 140.

------. law and testimony. 186.

------. faithfulness the mark of true disciples. 312.

------. ecclesiastical authority only for reforming not deforming the church. 382.

Machen, J. Gresham. ours not a creed making or revising age. 175.

Maccovius, Johannes. defines a particular church. 50.

------. greater sin to ignore the church than a private person. 460.

Macmillan, John. the Church of Scotland the mother church of Covenanters. 54.

------. Solemn League a pattern for reform and binding upon the church. 325.

------. law and testimony. 335.

MacPherson, John. Scottish understanding of what makes constitutes particular churches. 162.

Mason, Archibald. human versus divine testimony discussed. 195.

Masselink, William. the school of Dutch reconstructionism mentioned. 133.
----. warning against conformity to this world. 233.
McCoy, Charles S. and J. Wayne Baker. Gomarus appeals to creeds and unanimous opinion against Arminians. 412.
McCrie, Thomas. using the language of the church.
----- quotes Calderwood.
----- why dissenters should never change constitutions of the particular church from which they dissent. 42.
----- danger of revising terms of communion. 59fn.
----- Seceders sought historical identity. 286.
McGaw, James S. value of the martyrs’ testimony. 401.
McGill, Alexander. need for history for a name to have meaning. 85.
McLeod, Alexander. holding fast to attainments of the reformation. 76.
-----. historical succession of witnessing church. 193.
Mentzer, Raymond A. catechizing before communion amongst the French Reformed. 450.
Miller, Samuel. profession of faith according to the received forms. 78.
-----. public function of creeds. 446.
-----. creeds interpret Bible. 447.
-----. creeds represent historical continuity. 448.
Monod, Adolphe. value of a common confession to a particular church. 173.
Muller, Richard. discerning principia and non-fundamentals. 136.
-----. distinction between philosophical reason and rational exercise of mind. 424.
-----. faith grasps beyond the ken of reason. 426.
-----. understanding what was meant by sola scriptura. 453.
Murray, John. tradition and Protestants. 513.
Owen, John. preached Word the Word of God. 434.
Payton, James R., Jr. Luther respected church fathers and tradition. 141.
-----. Luther interpreted and spoke as a doctor. 455.
----- not everyone privileged to interpret Scripture. 456.
Perkins, William. history provides a cloud of witnesses confessing the same truth. 63.
-----. true preaching is prophesying. 506fn.
Polyandrum, Johannem. calling of some Reformers from Romanism partly extraordinary. 254.

Poole, Matthew. Word of God exemplified in Christ’s practice. 69.

Poole, Matthew. minding the same thing in religion. 71.

Poole, Matthew. law and testimony. 346.

Poole, Matthew. testimony bearing by the witnessing church. 350.

Porteous, James Moir. need to distinguish quatenus from quia. 187.

Porteous, James Moir. right of synod to set terms of communion. 476.

Prusak, Bernard P. national churches. 160fn.

Quenstedt, Johannes Andreas. particular churches defined geographically. 49.

Renwick, James and Alexander Shields. Covenanting societies governed by constitutions of the Church of Scotland. 335.

Richards, John Edwards. the historical descent of the PCA. 363.

Rutherfurd, Samuel. when and how separation is warranted. 51, 136fn.

Schaff, Philip. Zwingli and Luther believed in historical continuity. 160.

———. Apostles creed, Ten Commandments, Lord’s prayer. 120.

———. historical succession ordinarily needed. 138.

———. distinguishing kinds of separation. 171.

———. substance of confessions ought to be the Word of God. 174.

———. right discipline sought by the minority dissenting from a corrupt particular church. 198.

———. no cause leave a less pure for a more church. 201.

———. national baptism referenced. 201.

———. historical succession of general ministerium. 215.

———. our reformers were extraordinary doctors. 259.

———. true church hears the voice of Christ. 310.

———. where the church was before Luther. 311.

———. power and authority of synods. 445, 472.

———. in what sense confessions and creeds are accounted divine. 472.
IGNORANT—YES! COVENANTER—NO!

—. early radical heretical sects disowned historical connection. 165fn.
—. revelation itself is historical. 406.
—. power of synods. 411fn.
—. account of Luther at Worms. 461.
—. his translation of “evident reason.” 461fn.
Schmauk, Theodore.
conessions are Scripture worked into a form by the church. 174.
—. confessions are rooted in history. 188.
—. Luther as confessor. 466.
Schreiner, Susan E. how the reformers conceived of sola scriptura. 452.
Shaw, Robert. authority of synods. 498.
Shedd, William G.T. history as recurring. 419.
—. theology of Melancthon and Calvin. 420.
—. church growth organic and not merely chronological. 507.
Shields, Alexander. degrees of communion. 28.
—. distinguishing different periods in a church’s history. 33.
—. historical succession of the Church of Scotland. 81.
—. Covenanters bound to extirpate schism and defection. 326.
Shields, Alexander and James Renwick. Covenanting societies governed by constitutions of the Church of Scotland. 335.
Sholten, Henry. history a key to identity. 375.
Smith, Gary V. law and testimony. 341, 342.
Smith, Morton H. general culpability when General Assembly espouses an error. 369.
—. historical continuity assumed by PCA. 369fn, 374.
—. when separation is warranted. 374.
Smith, Robert. use of Isaiah 8:16. 177fn.
Sproul, R.C. psalmody and hymnody. 297, 297.
—. holy days. 298.
Sproull, Thomas. kind words for David Steele. 18fn.
Stapfer, Johann F. categories of exclusion in the doctrine of the church. 210fn.
Steele, David. catalogs the degrees of faithfulness of Presbyterian bodies. 27fn.
—. two witnesses the smallest number. 219
—. lining psalms a matter of order the doing of which is charity. 230fn.
—. value of the Solemn League. 325.
—. judicial tyranny in the RP synod. 363fn, 367fn.
constituting the Reformed Presbytery. 368.
seeking historical continuity. 370.
returning to a particular church. 372.

Stoneberger, J. the soul of sectarianism to oppose the confession of a particular church. 234.

Thompson, Robert Ellis. judgment concerning the fidelity of the “Steelites” at the end of the 19th century. 512.

Trueman, Carl R. context for interpreting Scripture. 436.
doctrine of sola scriptura. 437 fn.
John Owen and use of tradition. 438.
creeds and confession not private. 449.

Turnbull, John. on subordinate standards. 100.

Turretin, Francis. Protestants no new church. 85, 86, 86.
twofold consideration of the Roman church. 85.
Rome recedes from true church. 86.
institutional and historical succession. 87.
creeds distinguish doctrine in the church. 103.
those in a communion submit to the creed and jurisdiction. 109 fn.
true authority of creeds. 109.

Rome has corrupted doctrine and jurisdiction. 155.
synodical power to set order and decorum. 168.
church before Luther and Calvin. 287.
Ursinus, Zacharias. visible and invisible church. 306.
historical continuity.
authority of creeds. 307.
testimony of the church has a divine testimony. 307.
van Oort, Johannes. Calvin did not dishonor tradition and fathers. 423.
van Rensselaer, Cortlandt. historical connection of American Presbyterians to Church of Scotland. 249.
Vermigli, Peter Martyr. Roman church not catholic. 133.
historical continuity.

Walker, James. Scottish opposition to denominationalism. 280.
Presbyterians opposed occasional communion with Independents. 280.
historical succession. 281.

Wallace, Peter J. history needed for identity. 405.
Walther, C.F.W. using the ecclesiastical language. 36 fn.
Wendelin, Marci F. perspicuity of Scripture. 459.
Ignorant—Yes! Covenant—No!

Whitaker, William. perspicuity of Scripture. 460.

----- church as interpreter of Scripture. 495.

Willison, John. duty to transmit testimony to posterity. 262.

Willson, James M. testimony bearing. 331.

----- content of a testimony. 332.

----- law and testimony. 333.

Willson, James R. catechism before communion. 120.

----- sin to admit those to communion who do not agree with the creed. 121.

----- law and testimony. 331.

Willson, Samuel M. holding fast attainments. 76.

Wilson, William [of Perth].

disent from the particular national church. 99fn.

----- testimony bearing may be by a very few. 220.

----- communion of particular churches built on common confession. 259.

----- failure of particular church to confess warrants dissent and separation. 264.

----- dissent is no unchurching. 264.

----- duty to testify against corruptions of the particular church from which dissent is stated. 265.

----- dissent is institutional not organic. 364.

Witsius, Herman. ecclesiastical fellowship differs from Christian fellowship. 74.

----- that creeds may contain infallible doctrine. 430.

----- historical continuity. 431.

----- Protestants have historical continuity. 432.

----- external communion alone does not save. 433.

Wollebius, Johannes. particular churches national or provincial. 31.

----- perspicuity of Scripture. 458, 459

Wylie, James A. Waldenses as dissenters. 167fn.

Young, Edward J. law and testimony. 345.

----- private versus public interpretations of Scripture. 460.