

Letting Go

I'm standing here
Memories, what could have been
Oh how I love you so
Held closer now than I could know

The thought of you will never fade,
The love I have will ever grow '
till the day we meet I pray,
As children loved eternally

I don't want to say good bye but I'm letting go
(I'm letting go)
Even though it's hard this time I'm letting go
(But I know) that He loves you

Here I am letting go,
Looking to tomorrow
My strength lies in God alone
Who takes away all our sorrow

I don't want to say good bye but I'm letting go
(I'm letting go)
Even though it's hard this time I'm letting go
(But I know)
That He loves you
