

Smelly Feet Productions - Apps Privacy Policy

Our first priority is to make sure our apps provide the safest possible environment for kids:

- Our apps are 100% COPPA compliant
- Our apps DO NOT contain external links of any sort
- NO personal information is collected
- NO advertisements
- NO in-app purchases
- Our apps use Parse Analytics to collect non-personal information

The term “personal information” refers to personally identifiable information through which a user can be identified as an individual. The term “Non-personal information” refers to information that does not directly identify a user.

Collection and Use of Personal Information

We do not knowingly collect any personal information from children under the age of 13. If you believe we have mistakenly collected such information, please contact us so we can resolve the issue.

Collection and Use of Non-Personal Information

Our apps may use tools or third-party analytical software to collect non-personal information such as: app progress, session times, clicked objects and other non-personal information that may be used by us to enhance our apps and services and improve the overall game experience. This data is in a form that does not permit direct association with any specific individual. We do not share non-personal information with third-party companies or individuals.

For our first app - Back Soon- Parents Vacation, we are using Parse Analytics to collect non-personal information. Parse Privacy Policy: <https://parse.com/about/privacy>

External links

Our apps do not contain any external links, which means no links to social media, the app store, or even SmellyFeet.Productions

Push notifications and Location Data

Our apps do not use push notifications or collect location data.

The privacy policy was last updated - April 18th, 2015.
