Welcome Croeso

A tradition in the making...

Here at Melin Tregwynt the legacy of Welsh doublecloth weaving is handed from generation to generation.

This small whitewashed woollen mill, can be found in a remote wooded valley on the Pembrokeshire coast. There has been a mill on this site since the 17th century, when local farmers would bring their fleeces to be spun into yarn and woven into sturdy Welsh wool blankets.

Today we find our yarns from further afield but weaving in the same mill building continues.

Owned by the same family since 1912 the Mill now employs over 30 people and makes things that are useful, beautiful to look at and just a little bit special.

Traddodiad ar waith...

Yma ym Melin Tregwynt, mae etifeddiaeth gwehyddu brethyn dwbl Cymreig yn cael ei throsglwyddo o genhedlaeth i genhedlaeth.

Mae'r felin wlân fechan, wedi'i gwyngalchu, yn swatio mewn cwm coediog anghysbell ar arfordir Sir Benfro. Fe fu melin ar y safle hwn ers yr 17eg ganrif, pan fyddai ffermwyr lleol yn dod â'u cnu i'w nyddu'n edafedd a'i wehyddu'n garthenni gwlân Cymreig cryfion.

Erbyn heddiw, daw ein hedafedd o diroedd pellach, ond mae'r gwehyddu'n dal i ddigwydd yn yr un adeiladau yn y felin.

Mae'n eiddo i'r un teulu ers 1912 a bellach yn cyflogi dros 30 o bobl ac yn gwneud pethau sy'n ddefnyddiol, yn hardd i'r llygaid ac ychydig bach yn arbennig.

Welsh Doublecloth Brethyn Dwbl Cymreig

Doublecloth is a traditional weave deeply rooted in Welsh folk history. Every mill had its own special design. One of the most striking effects is the reversible nature of the cloth and you can use both sides. The designs you see here are all unique to us.

History Hanes

Our family company has been weaving here at Tregwynt Mill in Pembrokeshire, West Wales for one hundred years. Henry Griffiths bought Melin Tregwynt in 1912 for £760 and then moved there with his young wife Esther. Their two sons were Benjamin and Howard who took on the mill after his father. Eluned was only 18 when she married Howard and came to live at Tregwynt.

Eifion and Amanda have been running the Mill since 1986. The skills and knowledge of all our staff, both past and present, keep the tradition of Welsh weaving alive at Melin Tregwynt.

Yma ym Melin Tregwynt yn Sir Benfro, mae ein cwmni teuluol wedi bod yn gwehyddu ers can mlynedd. Prynododd Henry Griffiths Felin Tregwynt ym 1912 am £760 ac yna symudodd yno gyda'i wraig ifanc, Esther. Eu dau fab oedd Benjamin a Howard, a gymerodd awenau'r felin ar ôl ei dad. Roedd Eluned ond yn 18 pan briododd â Howard a dod i fyw yn Nhregwynt.

Mae Eifion ac Amanda wedi bod yn rhedeg y Felin ers 1986. Sgiliau'r staff, a'u gwybodaeth, nawr ac yn y gorffennol, sy'n cadw traddodiad gwehyddu Cymreig yn fyw ym Melin Tregwynt.
