PRICES
$40-$80 PER GRAM

Flavored meth has been around as long as meth itself. Cola, chocolate and energy drink powders have been used as additives as well.

This drug is just as addictive as any other type of methamphetamine. Each "meth cook" has his /her own recipe and often brag about the quality of their product.

Every pound of meth made yields 5 pounds of hazardous materials.

As early as WWII, meth was mixed with chocolate and given to German military to help with fatigue.

Designed to appeal to children and get them hooked.
