Room 100 (Welcome Room)

Facilitated by Paul Lucks & Team

Suggested Donation for Book $10

Description: You have hundreds of Facebook friends, but do you know the full name of your next-door neighbor? When Jesus was asked to sum up everyone into one command, he said to love God with everything we have and to love our neighbors as ourselves. Most of us have turned this simple idea of loving our neighbors into a nice saying, putting it on bumperstickers and refrigerator magnets and then going on with our lives without actually putting it into practice. What would happen if every follower of Jesus took the Great Commandment literally? Is it possible that the solution to our society's biggest issues has been right under our noses for the past two thousand years? Examining the effects of our unprecedented mobility and our increasing isolationism, this class will help you make lasting personal connections by asking--and acting on---one question: What's the most loving thing I can do for my neighbors? Trailer at: www.youtube.com/watch?v=SyuS9MrF6o&list=PLHXz86FG76tJtGGG2Mf0CuZiHwKU7K_Vw

Second Corinthians (14 Sessions)

September 10—December 17

Room 205C

Facilitated by Gary Krueger & Team

Description: The church at Corinth had recently been struggling with divisions and quarrels. But for a majority of the believers, the problem had been solved by the time Paul wrote 2 Corinthians. Many had repented of their sinful ways and had come back into unity with one another and with the leadership of Paul. However, Paul still felt the need to articulate a defense of his apostleship and his message. In this class, you will discover that no one is immune from suffering; that trials are used by God to teach us humility and dependence on His grace rather than our own strength.
