The Opportunity

Stratevi is experiencing an exciting period of growth and is looking for great talent with expertise in health economics, outcomes research and market access to join our team. This position can be filled up to a Director level (title commensurate with level of experience). This position can be based in either our Santa Monica, CA or Boston, MA office. Both are creative office spaces in the heart of the city. This is a unique opportunity to help shape and be part of a company early in its life.

Potential responsibilities include leading projects focused on strategic planning, value proposition development, outcomes research study design, modeling, analysis, as well as scientific communication activities.

Who You Are

You have an advanced degree (PhD, PharmD, MD or MS) and work experience in HEOR or related positions.

Your background includes helping develop product value stories, designing studies, building economic models, conducting retrospective claims analysis and/or leveraging HEOR data in a market access capacity. In addition, you have experience with at least one of the following: Excel/VBA, TreeAge, SAS, STATA, SPSS or R.

You also have strong attention to detail and great communication and interpersonal skills. You enjoy working in a team environment. You bring passion, curiosity and creativity to everything you do and are eager to work in a flexible, high-growth environment.

Why Stratevi

We love solving difficult problems for the most innovative products and take pride in the impact that our work has on patients. We work across a broad spectrum of disciplines such as HEOR, market access, commercial and scientific communication. As a new firm we are focused on developing a strong culture, and we love to collaborate while having fun together as a team. We are looking for someone who is excited about joining and contributing to the growth of Stratevi.

We are recruiting high performing talent with the potential of taking on leadership roles of increasing responsibility over time.

To Apply

If interested, we encourage you to send your resume and cover letter to careers@stratevi.com.
