TERMS OF MEMBERSHIP:

Your card allows you to borrow Spark Center materials, use Spark Center technology, or use Spark's available services. Card must be presented for service. Cards are not transferable to any other person. Failure to follow the rules or regulations regarding the card or use of Spark Center space may result in suspension of services. Fines and fees from overdue or damaged materials totaling $5.00 or more per responsible party (responsibility for minors residing with parent or guardian) will cause the inactivation of borrowing privileges. Privileges will resume when fines and fees have been paid.

COMPUTER USE AGREEMENT:

1. Spark computing devices are not to be removed from Spark Center or taken into the bathroom.
2. Computing devices may be borrowed for up to two hours and then must be returned.
3. No illegal (harassment, libeling or slandering, destruction or damage, disruption or unauthorized monitoring or interference, unauthorized copying of copyrighted material, or viewing or downloading of pornography).
4. Center staff and volunteers have the authority and duty to enforce equitable and fair access to all computing facilities at Spark.
5. Center staff and volunteers are generally trained computer instructors. Patrons are responsible for their own use of public access computers.
6. Parents are responsible for monitoring and guiding use of center computers for their children.
7. Patrons are only authorized to access the "Spark" patron portal and are prohibited from downloading software or other programs onto center computers. Flash drives are available for check-out.
