

In: EXBERLINER, January 2016

ART

Claudia Wieser – All That Is

Head to Arratia Beer where everything, from an ultra-reflective golden sphere to the bench you're invited to sit on, is an object up for contemplation. Wieser's multicolour forms aren't only beholden to Plato's ideals, but also bend towards Escher in their perfect impossibility, and then turn a post-modern mirror back towards themselves. They manage to accommodate their viewers, yet refuse to yield to preconceived ideas. Through the lens of storytelling, the passing of time or interconnectivity, the question of what power we have over the tangible still persists. AB ▶ Through January 23, Arratia Beer, Potsdamer Str. 87, Mitte, U-Bhf Kurfürstenstr., Tue-Sat 12-18

