"[The band] conjures the very best parts of the Veils and the Walkmen and the Killers, writing lean, nervy songs that snarl and snap"
- Rolling Stone

The Chicago quartet have released a clutch of EPs and singles and have garnered praise from Rolling Stone, Jim DeRogatis (Sound Opinions, SPIN, Chicago Sun Times), You Ain't No Picasso, the Chicago Tribune, among many other outlets. They've also built a robust and respected live profile through incendiary gigs and tours with artists such as White Rabbits, Smith Westerns, Here We Go Magic, Tapes 'n Tapes, and Telekinesis.

Produced by Jim Eno of Spoon, and recorded at Jim Eno's studio, Public Hi-Fi, in Austin, Texas Sorry All Over The Place is an invigorating collection that fuses '60s bubblegum sentimentality with modern indie rock's quirky confessionals and wiry musicality harmonies.

Following successful showcases at CMJ and SXSW, The Kickback will be playing festivals in the Midwest this summer along with a full tour in the fall. Consequence of Sound premiered the track "White Lodge" and SXSW will use "Sting's Teacher Years" for 2016 promo videos. Other great press to follow. Targets include: Spin, Rolling Stone, Stereogum, Pitchfork, WBEZ/Sound Opinions, NPR.

College Radio campaign will kick off in mid-August with a Triple A and Non-comm campaign to follow in September. Modern Rock Specialty and Modern Rock to follow later in the fall.

Digital marketing focusing on social media, 3rd party promotions including sponsorship tie-ins and focus on the podcasting community with band's own podcast DISASTOUR, now over 100 episodes.
