- ❖ This morning in The Barn at 10:30, Rev. Andrew Muilenburg will continue the sermon series “Hearing What the Spirit Says to the Church.” This series from the book of Revelation, explores Revelation 1–3 and focuses attention on how the messages to the seven churches of Revelation apply to our lives today. Andrew will be speaking on the message to the church in Smyrna.
- ❖ Join the young adults on Wednesday evening in the Corner House for #DeuceTalks—a weekly time of engaging discussion. This past week, we discussed the place of one’s personal convictions in relation to their jobs. Encourage young adults to engage in healthy, honest, balanced, biblically-based discussions.

Thank you for your prayers, flowers, cards and visits during my recent medical procedure and hospitalization. I felt the power of your prayers and the concern that was expressed through the visits and cards. Thank you for being such a praying and caring congregation of friends.

Mary Staudt This week, the pastoral staff honored Mary Staudt for her 18 months of service in the church office. Friday, April 22, was her last day of service on staff. During her employment at ET, she recently married Pastor Charlie’s brother-in-law, David Staudt. This week, they are celebrating their honeymoon in Hawaii! Mary will be greatly missed in the office, but highly visible here at ET where she and David are a vital part of the church family. Congratulate and express appreciation to Mary for her faithful service! Welcome Beverly Ayers as she fills the position of administrative assistant to Pastor Charlie.

Congratulations to Jessica Ayers and Nathan Wallace as they were united in marriage last Sunday, April 17, by Dr. Terry Wallace and Pastor Charlie.
