

WHITE CLAY CREEK
National Wild & Scenic River
Ours to Enjoy. Ours to Protect.

QUARTERLY MEETING AGENDA

August 17, 10am-noon

New Garden Township Building, 299 Starr Road, Landenberg, PA 19350

Introductions

Approval of May Minutes

New Business

Mailing List Update - CCIL/groups.io

Non-Profit Management Certificate Course/Action Plan

Chester County Comprehensive Plan Update

Subcommittee Reports

Land Preservation

- NLT/BC reallocation of funds and updates on progress
- Natural Lands Trust Projects Update (Erin M.)
- Brandywine Conservancy Projects Update (John G.)
- Reforestation – Franklin Preserve Update (Beth/Shane), 1 year stewardship plus volunteer planting Sept. 24, 9am-1pm.

Research and Restoration

- Water Quality/Bacteria Monitoring/journal article (Stroud/Jenny E.)
- Water Quality/Bacteria Monitoring (DNS-Kristen T.)
- Green Stormwater Infrastructure Pilot Project (Beth)
- Christina Watersheds Partnership (formerly CTIP) pilot project
- New Garden Park Riparian Buffer Project - spending down remaining funds
- Curtis Mill Riparian Buffer Planting Phase 2 – WCRF, Completed May 14

Education/Outreach

- Christina Basin Education Group update/video 3 (Martha)
- School Programs Update - AGIS, Newark Charter want to return, sending letters out this Sept. again to all schools. (Shane)
- Stroud Watershed 101 Workshops for cluster partners (DRWI/WPF - Sept. 28-29, Oct. 7)

Old Business

Kristen Molfetta –PWSR research project update (Shane)

Honoring Dorothy Miller (Doug J.)

Management Plan Coordinator/WCWA Quarterly Report (Shane) – Questions/Discussion

NPS River Manager Report (Chuck) – Questions/Discussion

Financial Report(s)

Second Quarter 2016 Statement of Financials (see handout)

Announcements

Christina Basin BMP Bus Tour, September 9, meet at New Garden Park, 9am-4:30pm

AWRA Mid-Atlantic Conference, Wilmington Riverfront, September 15-16

Newark Community Day, Sunday, September 18, UD 11am-4pm

Coalition for the Delaware River Watershed Conference, Normandy Farms Hotel, Blue Bell, PA Sept 19-20.

White Clay Volunteer Tree Planting, Saturday, September 24 at Franklin Preserve (next to Crossan Park)