

WHITE CLAY CREEK
National Wild & Scenic River
Ours to Enjoy. Ours to Protect.

QUARTERLY MEETING AGENDA

May 23, 2017, 10:00am - noon

New Garden Township Building, 299 Starr Road, Landenberg, PA 19350

Introductions/Introduce Jamie Fosburgh, Chief, National Wild and Scenic Rivers Northeast Region and National Parks Service liaison to the White Clay

Approval of February Minutes

New Business (45 minutes)

White Clay Creek Floodplain Reconnection, West Marlborough and London Grove Townships, Presentation by Melinda Daniels, Stroud Water Research Center

Proposed Cell Tower, New Garden Township

Subcommittee Reports (45 minutes)

Land Preservation

- Natural Lands Trust Project Updates (Erin M.)
- Brandywine Conservancy Projects (John G.)
- The Land Conservancy, London Britain parcel (Aileen/Shane)

Research and Restoration

- Catch the Rain Update (Beth)
- Christina Watersheds Partnership (formerly CTIP) pilot project update (Ellen)
- Bacteria and Stream Monitoring Update (Shane)
- Franklin Preserve Reforestation Update (Shane)
- Chester County Conservation District Project Updates (Mike)

Education/Outreach (Shane)

- Creek Fest Update
- Newark Reservoir Signage Update
- 2017 White Clay Wild and Scenic Update (hard copies available)

NPS River Manager Report (Jamie) – Questions/Discussion

Management Plan Coordinator Quarterly Report– Questions/Discussion

First Quarter 2017 Statement of Financials

Announcements