

Missions Trips 2016-2017

TRIPS OVERVIEW

Peru Trip with Arimborgo Ministries, and Camino de Vida (Church in Lima)

January 19th-30th, 2017

Cost: Estimated $2,650

Arimborgo Ministries exists to penetrate the heart of the Amazon Jungle with God's love. Through church planting, pastors' training, mentoring and discipleship, youth ministry, child sponsorship, and outreach to broken families through affordable education, they exist to make Him known in this uttermost corner of the earth, centered in Iquitos, Peru and impacting the surrounding jungle. Visit www.arimborgo.org to take a look!

Camino de Vida is a local church in Lima, Peru with a focus on affecting local neighborhoods through the love of Christ, by providing safety and acceptance in the church community, and also meeting needs of people through practical, hands-on engagement. Practice your Spanish and learn more by checking them out at www.caminodevida.com

What will be doing with both ministries in Peru?

Food Outreaches

Painting Houses of Local Families in Need

Partner with Other Local Churches

Evangelism

Children's Ministries

Speaking Engagement in Church(es)

What is due, and when?

July 31st

- Application, non refundable $25 application fee

September 4th

- First deposit of $900 Monies are non-refundable
- Copy of passport (if not included with application)

October 16th

- Second deposit of $900

November 27th

- Final Deposit of $850

Ethiopia Trip with Compassion International

Dates: May 6th-16th, 2017

Cost: Estimated $3,000

Compassion International takes a holistic approach to child development, sometimes starting with prenatal care all the way to leadership development in young adults. This means, they take a long-term approach in being involved in children's lives. We will be visiting the village where City Church sponsors 80+ children in the Amahara region.

What will we be doing in Ethiopia?

Work with the Children

Make Home Visits

Help with Community Projects

Take the Children Off-site for a Fun Day

What is due, and when?

July 31st

- Application, non refundable $25 application fee

February

- Copy of visa due (to obtained no earlier than 6 months prior to trip)
- All money due, paid to account with Compassion International (due date TBD)

Thailand Trip with Todd and Julie Powers

Dated TBD, Fall 2017

Cost: $2,750

Empower International is a mission organization founded and led by Todd and Julie Powers. They have been involved in missionary work since 1987. Empower International established its primary mission base in Thailand in 2003 and has bases in Thailand, Burma, and Pakistan. The many areas of ministry focus include church planting, bible schools, orphanages, child education, human trafficking and rescue, and so much more. Learn more by visiting www.empower.global.

What we will be doing in Thailand?

Visiting Orphanages

Church Services

Work Project and Leadership Development

Overnight Stay in a Thai Village

Children's and Youth Ministry

Evangelism

Visit to an Elephant Camp

Tour Thai/Burma Border City

What is due, and when?

July 31st

- Application, non refundable $25 application fee

*Remaining time line is TBD at this time