
Audit Committee Charter

Nyota Minerals Limited ABN 98 060 938 552 (Company)

Composition of the Audit Committee

The Committee shall be structured so that it has at least three members, with the majority of members being independent non-executive directors of the Company. The Chair of the Committee is to be an independent non-executive director.

Each member of the Committee must be able to read and understand financial statements. At least one member is to have relevant financial qualifications and experience and competence in accounting and auditing.

From time to time, non Committee members may be invited to attend meetings of the Committee, if it is considered appropriate. The external auditor should be invited to attend meetings on a regular basis.

1 Role of the Audit Committee

The role of the Committee is to:

- (a) monitor and review the integrity of the financial reporting of the Company, reviewing significant financial reporting judgments;
 - (b) review the Company's internal financial control system and, unless expressly addressed by a separate risk committee or by the Board itself, risk management systems;
 - (c) monitor, review and oversee the external audit function including matters concerning appointment and remuneration, independence and non-audit services;
 - (d) monitor and review compliance with the Company's Code of Conduct [5]and Whistleblower Policy; and
 - (e) perform such other functions as assigned by law, the Company's Constitution or the Board.

2 Operations

The Committee meets at least once every quarter, with further meetings on an as required basis. Minutes of all meetings of the Committee are to be kept and a report of actions taken or recommended are to be given at each subsequent meeting of the full Board. Committee meetings will be governed by the same rules, as set out in the Company's Constitution as they apply to the meetings of the Board.

3 Authority and resources

The Company is to provide the Committee with sufficient resources to undertake its duties, including provision of educational information on accounting policies and other financial topics relevant to the Company, and such other relevant materials requested by the Committee.

The Committee has unrestricted rights of access to management and the external auditors and has the authority to seek explanations and additional information from the Company's external auditors, without management present, when required.

The Committee has the power to conduct or authorise investigations into any matters within the Committee's scope of responsibilities. The Committee has the authority, as it deems necessary or appropriate, to retain independent legal, accounting or other advisors. Costs associated with this will be borne by the Company.

4 Reporting to the Board and shareholders

The Committee is to report to the Board, at least half yearly, on the following matters:

- (a) assessment of whether external reporting is consistent with Committee members' information and knowledge and is adequate for shareholder needs;
- (b) assessment of the management processes supporting external reporting;
- (c) recommendations for amending the Company's Procedures for the Selection and Appointment of the External Auditor and procedures for the rotation of external audit engagement partners;
- (d) recommendations for the appointment or, if necessary, the removal of the external auditor;
- (e) assessment of the performance and independence of the external auditors. Where the external auditor provides non-audit services, the report should state whether the Audit Committee is satisfied that provision of those services has not compromised the auditor's independence; and
- (f) the results of the Committee's review of risk management and internal control systems.

The Chair of the Audit Committee, if appointed, is to be present at the annual general meeting to answer questions, through the Chair of the Board.

5 Responsibilities

Annual responsibilities of the Committee are as set out in the Audit Committee Charter – annual action points (attached).
