To view/download the Policy, go to: <http://policy.travelinsurance.com/ACGB-1217>. Travel Insurance is underwritten by Berkshire Hathaway Specialty Insurance Company; NAIC #22276. AOU

AIR TRANSPORTATION

All air carriers are independent contractor and are not owned, managed, controlled or operated by RTI and have their own cancellation policies, which are applied and followed with no exception. All air is based on economy class seating, 100% non-refundable and non-endorsable at time of purchase. Your airline ticket constitutes a contract between yourself and the airline (and not RTI), even if purchased through RTI. Prior to payment, airlines may impose fuel surcharges or tax increases with or without notification, which are the responsibility of the passenger. Once payment is made, RTI considers any fees associated to changes or cancellation is the responsibility of the passenger.

SEAT ASSIGNMENT

Random seats are assigned for all group participants. If you must have specific seat, we recommend you to be at the airport at least three hours prior to departure and arrange the seat assignment with your airline's gate agent. Bulkhead and exit row seating can never be requested prior to the day of departure. RTI can never guarantee specific seats, which are at the discretion of the airline & are pending availability, subject to aircraft/seat map changes.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS

Hotel accommodations are based on twin-bedded or double rooms. RTI reserves the right to substitute similar category hotels without prior notice.

PRIVATE ROOMS and SINGLE SUPPLEMENT

A limited number of single rooms are available (on request basis only) at the supplement price.

TRIPLE ROOMS

Triple rooms are not available on this pilgrimage.

MEALS

Special meals cannot be guaranteed, but RTI will try to accommodate your needs: however you must indicate at initial booking any special meal requirements. In case you choose not to have a meal, there is no refund for unused meals.

BAGGAGE RULES

Baggage rules are set by each individual airline and subject to change at any time. Generally each tour participant is permitted to bring one checked suitcase, one small carry-on bag (8" x 14" x 22"), and one personal item (i.e. purse, laptop case). In general, the airlines permit 1 checked bag weighing up to 50 lbs. (23 kg) and maximum dimensions of 62 in. (158 cm) calculated by adding the length + the width + the height of the bag. Please check with your specific airline to verify the size and weight allowances. RTI is not responsible for the loss of, theft of, delay, or damage to a participant's belongings.

RESPONSIBILITY

RTI acts as a tour operator. The suppliers providing transportation, meals, sightseeing arrangements and hotel accommodations for the tour program are independent contractors and are not agents or employees of RTI. By utilizing the service of the suppliers, you agree that RTI will not be liable for any change in flight or itinerary schedule due to circumstances beyond its control, such as strikes, acts of governments, acts of war and/or terrorism, war, or acts of God or nature. Though every effort will be made to follow the itinerary, it should be considered as an indication of the tour, rather than a contract of places to be visited. Occasionally, local religious holidays, national holidays, traffic conditions and other events may necessitate changes in the sequence of visits or the missing of certain visits. RTI is not responsible for compensation for cities/sites omitted from the itinerary due to circumstances beyond its control.

SPECIAL MEDICAL CONDITIONS

You must report any disability requiring special attention to RTI at the time of registration. We make every effort to accommodate disabled passengers; however, we cannot guarantee and are not responsible for any denial of services by carriers, hotels, restaurants, or other independent suppliers.

Where the Americans with Disabilities Act is not applicable, facilities for disabled individuals may be limited. We regret that we cannot provide individual assistance to any tour participant for walking, dining, while in their room, on flight, or getting on and off motor coaches and other vehicles. Additionally, airlines are not able to guarantee or provide assistance for disabled tour participants, including special seating. A qualified and physically able companion must accompany travelers who need special assistance. Pregnant women considering international travel should be advised to evaluate the potential problems as well as the quality of medical care available at the destination and during transit. RTI is not responsible for any medical condition that occurs prior to, during or after the tour.

YOUNG TRAVELERS

Travelers who are less than 18 years old on the departure date must be accompanied by an adult. Due to heightened security, many countries have adopted practices to prevent international abductions of children. If a child will be traveling with adults other than the parents or with only one parent, it is recommended that a notarized letter be written, by the parents or non-traveling parent, granting authorization for the child to travel internationally, including the travel dates. We also suggest that you contact the appropriate consulate and airlines because they may have additional requirements.

SAFETY

Please be aware that during your participation on tours operated by RTI, certain risks and dangers may arise beyond our control. RTI does not have liability regarding provisions of medical care or the adequacy of any care that may be rendered.

PHYSICALITY OF OUR TOURS

Please note that almost all destinations serviced by RTI require physical fitness and a lot of walking, sometimes up or down hills; and at times, on rough terrain. You may certainly stay behind for some parts of the journey; however, it is suggested that 3 to 4 weeks before your departure, you should begin preparing physically by walking one or two times a day. Build up to 4-6 miles with no discomfort.

SERVICE INQUIRIES AFTER THE TRIP

If upon returning from your trip, you wish to inquire about any services provided, please ensure that all correspondence is received by Religious Travel International; 600 South Cherry Street; Suite 105; Denver, CO 80246 within 30 days of the tour completion date. This will enable a timely investigation.

TOUR CANCELLATION BY OPERATOR

Be clearly advised that from time to time a tour departure may be cancelled due to lack of participation. In such case, the operator's sole responsibility is to provide a full refund. RTI is not responsible and does not assume responsibility for any additional costs or any fees relating to the issuance and /or cancellation of air tickets or other arrangements not made through RTI. Cancellations due to state advisories and/or state warnings, acts of war, war, terrorism, acts of God, natural disaster or any other circumstance outside the control of RTI, are not the fault of RTI. Great effort will be made to accommodate travelers to another trip or to revise the itinerary; however, cancellation for any of these reasons will not be eligible for refund.

PRINTING DISCLAIMER

RTI is not responsible for typographical or print errors, including errors in trip cost. We reserve the right to re-invoice or correct billing at any time.
