Fiscal Sponsor Information

Any individual artist or collective interested in applying to Queens Arts Fund may apply directly to the New Work Grant (for individual artists and multiple artist collaborations) or they may use a fiscal sponsor to apply for Arts Access Grant support. An organization must either be a nonprofit to be eligible to apply as an organization or, if the organization does not have nonprofit status, it may apply with a fiscal sponsor.

What is a Fiscal Sponsor

A fiscal sponsor is an organization that “sponsors” an individual artist or organization which does not have its own nonprofit status.

Who is eligible to be a fiscal sponsor?

Fiscal sponsors do not have to be located in Queens, but must be incorporated within the five boroughs of NYC and have IRS 501c3 nonprofit status. Organizations may not be both a fiscal sponsor and a direct applicant to the 2022 QAF Arts Access Grant. Organizations may act as the fiscal sponsor for multiple 2022 Arts Access Grant applicants.

What does a fiscal sponsor do?

A fiscal sponsor’s sole responsibility is to act as the fiscal conduit for QAF funds by distributing them directly to the artist.

A fiscal sponsor does not have any responsibility to control the artist’s work or their QAF application (unless offering administrative assistance)

How can I find a fiscal sponsor?

Brainstorm a list of every eligible organization you can think of. Then decide which ones are most appropriate for the kind of work you do. Which group do you already have a relationship with? Do you have a contact at an organization? You will need to be able to convince the organization that your project is worthwhile participating in. One way to do this is to involve them in the project as part of the public service component. Projects that demonstrate a link with the community also have a better chance of receiving funding.

Can a fiscal sponsor assist me in other ways?

Establishing a relationship with a local organization can be mutually beneficial. They often have space available for rehearsals or for shows or have materials around that you can use in your work. They can be an invaluable resource when it comes to administrative support and building an audience for your work.
