

GOODWIN TRIBUTARY

Fall of 2016 marked the first spawner surveys in this small tributary of Goodwin Creek, after completion of three fish passage barrier removal projects on three landowner's properties. The creek lies in the Sumas River Watershed near Everson, which flows into the Fraser River in British Columbia.

The total counts of live salmon and carcasses throughout the 2016 survey season.