AUDIO - LISTEN TO A TALK

DEFINITION

The speakers are arranged alphabetically by first name on the “AUDIO” page. You can scroll down the page to review all the speakers in the library. Individual speakers have their name, face, and the number of talks in their section.

ORGANIZATION

Clicking on a speaker takes you to their section. A speaker’s section is organized by the date of their talks. In addition to the date, each tile has the location of the recording and the number of talks for that particular date. Hovering over a speaker’s date tile, you can see if some or all of their talks for that date have been transcribed so you can read along as you listen to their talk.

NAVIGATION

Clicking on a date tile takes you to a list of mp3’s where you can listen to their talks for that date.

TRANSCRIPTION

The talks that have been transcribed verbatim will be listed below an image of the speaker. To access a verbatim transcription, clicking on a bolded talk title will open a pdf of that talk. Once the transcription is open, navigate back to the list of mp3’s and click on a title to play the recording as you read the pdf.

IRANI Adi Sr.'s father Khansaheb Irani had been ill and bedridden for the past several months, and so Baba went to see him at Khushru Quarters on the 19th. Khansaheb had always had great reverence for Baba, but no love. Now, much to his wife Gulmai's delight, he felt genuinely drawn to Baba. Baba asked him, "What do you wish for?" "Good health for two months and, thereafter, liberation," he said. Baba promised: "Do as I say for two months, and I will definitely fulfill your wish." Baba gave him some instructions regarding personal matters, and Khansaheb was happy. He garlanded Baba, and a photograph was taken of Baba, Gulmai and Khansaheb. Before leaving, Baba took Adi and Gulmai aside and remarked, "He will be relieved of his agonies in October." This was to be Khansaheb's last meeting with Baba, and his last wish was fulfilled by Baba. He merged in God's infinity eighteen days later on Sunday, 7 October 1945, at noon, with Baba's name on his lips. He was 67 years old. A few days before Khansaheb died, Adi was surprised to find flowers strewn on his bed when he went to sleep at night. The next night again, his bed was covered with flowers. When the third night he waited and caught one of the servants in the act, he demanded to know who had instructed him to do such a thing. The servant told him that it was none other than the ailing Khansaheb. Adi confronted his father the following morning and Khansaheb admitted that he did it. "But why, Father?" asked Adi. "All these years," said Khansaheb, "you had been telling me how great Meher Baba is -- how he is like Zoroaster, our Prophet. I did not believe you and tried to thwart you in your efforts to serve him. But now I know that you were right all along, and I ask your forgiveness. I wish to honor and worship your love for Baba. You and your mother were right, Adi. Baba is God!" And his father folded his hands to a picture of Baba kept on the wall opposite his bed.  |

I heard a story in India how, for a while Baba kept you away from Him, towards the end— ADI: Ah, that was you know, the last five or seven years you see. I used to see that Baba treated me in a very different manner than He used to treat me before. So at Meherabad, I was allowed to go at any time when there was work. I had to look after so many things required by Meherabad people. Their provisions, their clothes, their washing, their toilet, their everything, including that of Baba. So naturally, I had to go to see the Mandali members there about some work. So for the last few years, whenever I went there, Baba called me inside and asked me: He said, "Why have you come here?" I said, "I've come for work."  |                                    |      |                                       |      |                                   |      |                                      |      |   |      |  |      |  |      |   |       |
