Over the next quad many opportunities for athletes with physical, cognitive or visual impairments will open up at every level of sport. Swimming is on the leading edge of this movement. There will be new and exciting opportunities to provide Coaches and Para-swimmers with support and resources.

Discussions will include:

- What opportunities and resources exist with U.S. Paralympics Swimming
- Benefits of working with Para-Swimmers for Collegiate Coaches and their team
- How to be a part of the progression to Games
- Q & A time with the Paralympians
- The basics of swimming sport classification
- How to adapt your typical training concepts
