Thirty-first Sunday
October 30, 2016

The Lord's imperishable spirit is within us.

Wis 12:1

- Daily, how do I act in ways that recognize that the spirit of God is within me?
- How do I treat all whom I meet as the gift from God that they are?
- How am I merciful to others, even when I have been justly wronged?

Before God the whole universe is as a grain from a balance or a drop of morning dew come down upon the earth. Wisdom 11:22

all creatures mirror God's enduring Love

Tuesday, November 1, All Saints Day: This day we rejoice in the communion of saints. We remember all the saints known and unknown to us who enjoy the glory of heaven. This solemnity is not only about the saints in heaven; it is also about ourselves who are on this earth. The Scripture for the Eucharistic prayer service at 12:10 in the chapel that day will focus on the beatitudes.

On All Souls day, Nov. 2 Prayer for the dead reaches deep into our human history, and it has been our custom from the earliest days of the Church. To remember and to pray for a special loved one, you are invited to enter their names in the book near the baptismal font. Everyone is invited to bring a photo of a loved one and place it in front of the pieta shrine during November.

November 6, Saint Vincent de Paul Sunday:

We celebrate 108 years of service. We are especially grateful for our parish volunteers at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Food Pantry: Beatrice Hudson, Rodney Buchek, Michael Freymuth, Barbara Russell, and Doris Speed. Hot dog roast after mass in rectory garden.

November 13, Anointing of the Sick will be celebrated during Mass. This sacrament symbolizes all human efforts at healing the ill, sustaining the elderly and consoling the dying as it celebrates and mediates God's power to restore people to health - spiritual, physical, and psychological - or to give hope for eternal life.

Feast Of All Saints

Homecoming was a HUGE success!! Thank you to all who made this happen!!!!

Special thanks go to Nicky Hoxworth who chaired the event. There are so many to thank—those who made cakes, those who helped set up, who prepared the games, who sold raffle tickets, those who donated items for the baskets and the variety booth, those who made the food, those who ate the food and bought raffle chances.

A preliminary report on earnings looks like we made about $3,000 for the parish.

"Well done, my good and faithful servant."
Matthew 25:27
