Gratefully we thank all the hard work of many parishioners who together made the decorations and celebration of Christmas so stunningly beautiful!

A special thank you to Barbara Russell and Rodney Buchek for arranging the flowers and trees. Thanks to those who cleaned, made bows, watered plants, sang in the choir, climbed ladders: everything that made Christmas celebration of the Eucharist such a lovely experience.

As we turn the calendar page to January 2017, God bless you and Happy New year!

The Feast of the Epiphany is Sunday, January 8. Please plan to gather after mass in the Rectory to celebrate our parish family, enjoy an old fashioned Christmas village, the beautiful tree and crib, and have a savory breakfast together.
