Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord
April 9, 2017

Branches of palm are ancient symbols of victory and hope, as well as of new life. The procession celebrating Jesus' entry into Jerusalem overflowed with praise and excitement, as onlookers waved these triumphant branches and proclaimed their blessings. Yet, in a few days, they will cry "Crucify him!"

The crowd's change of heart illustrates the problem of holding God to our expectations. The crowd expected a liberating leader, the Messiah, to free them from Roman oppression. Jesus instead takes up his Cross and invites us to do the same. Through his Death and Resurrection he is indeed a liberator, but from death and sin, not from Rome. But unable to see past their need, the crowd's disappointment turns into anger and a death order.

As we enter Holy Week, Palm Sunday teaches us to let God be God and to trust in God's wisdom not only to meet but shatter and exceed our expectations.

A note from Fr. Rich:

"Great Party. Great Celebration. Thank you for celebrating my 50th Anniversary of Ordination. I look forward to seeing everyone on Holy Thursday."

P.S. Korcky, Thanks for taking pictures!

It is not too late to come to this afternoon's Choral Performance at 3 PM

Tickets are $35 at door, $10 for students. The emotionally charged season of Lent inspires music of despair and lament, as well as hymns for Palm Sunday.
