Sixteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

July 23, 2017

In today's gospel Matthew is teaching on the reign of God through the use of three parables. Each of these parables gives us a glimpse of what God's reign is like.

The weeds and the wheat.

It is not tidy: rather, good and bad grow together, like the weeds and the wheat, and there is no way to remove the one without also destroying the others.

The mustard seed.

God's Kingdom starts small: like the mustard seed, something tiny, but leads to extraordinary results.

The yeast.

And the kingdom is mystery: like yeast in dough, it is invisible, yet makes all the difference.

Sourcebook Liturgical Press

Each parable expands our notions about God's reign. Which image helps you to understand better and want to live more fully - the reign of God?

S. Janice

Gatherings this coming Week

- 7/20, Thurs, 7 pm Choir Practice

Sunday, July 30 - A Summer Treat .

You are invited to the Rectory gardens after Mass for a Ted Drewes frozen custard, and a time to enjoy the garden and catch-up on each other's lives. And what better way to celebrate S. Janice's birthday than with each other and Ted Drewes!!!!

Are you looking for a mid-summer spiritual boost? Consider attending a one-day Life in the Spirit Seminar on Saturday July 29th from 8 AM until 4 PM. Attendance is free, and continental breakfast and lunch will be provided. To register call 314-731-6100.
