Twenty-ninth Sunday of Ordinary Time

October 22, 2017

We give thanks to God always for you... calling to mind your work of faith and labor of love and persevering hope in Jesus Christ...

Thessalonians 1:2

St. Paul urges us to call to mind...give thanks. This is easy for us to do when we call to mind the Homecoming last Sunday. Certainly it was a work of faith and labor of love. A special thanks to the chairperson, Nicki Hoxworth for her hours of planning and background work. We also recognize the ever-ready co-workers, Vickie Deason with the beautiful decorations both in church and in the cafeteria and the set-up of children's games and Ellen Curtis for such delicious preparation of food and hours of work with the variety booth. Those who served the food, collected the money for raffle and auction tickets, worked in the variety booth and helped with the children's games, we say a special word of appreciation for your time and effort.

The presence of parishioners, those representing generations of past relationships with Holy Trinity, and the neighbors who joined us are visual signs of the active power of God's spirit with us in the last 169 years.

As we continue forward, driven by a persevering hope in Jesus Christ and our commitment to each other as a community of faith may our mission to spread the good news of Jesus Christ be ever in our hearts and minds.

S. Janice

TODAY is World Mission Sunday.

Pope Francis invites us "to reflect anew on the mission at the heart of the Christian faith." World Mission Sunday allows us to support those who so generously poured out their lives in service to Christ. Mission churches in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe serve millions of people. Please show your support on World Mission Sunday.

Most Reverend Robert J. Carlson

This morning we welcome folks from Visitation/St. Anne Reunion. Father John Vogler, former pastor of Visitation, will be the guest celebrant. All are invited to refreshments in the cafeteria after mass.

Gatherings this coming Week

Tuesday, Oct. 24, 3:00 Spiritual Transformation Sunday, Oct. 29 Liturgy mtg. after Mass in Rectory

Our wonderful Catholic holy days are quickly approaching: On Wednesday, November 1, we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints, remembering all the saints known and unknown to us who enjoy the glory of heaven.

In the reading for this holy day (the Beatitudes) we hear how to live lives of holiness so that we may attain happiness in this life, but even more happiness in the next life as we strive to likewise be numbered among all the saints in heaven.

November 2, All Souls Day. Prayer for those who have died has been the church's custom from its earliest days. We profess this in our faith every time we recite the Creed: I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. The Church will be opened from 12:00 – 1:00 for quiet prayer. You are invited to enter the names of your loved ones in the book as you enter the church. This book will be carried in offertory procession on Sunday, October 29. If you wish, you may place a photo of your loved one on the designated table.

A special word of THANKS to the SLU High School Juniors who helped do various tasks at the parish this past Friday. Thanks too to the adult leaders Rodney Buchek, Lloyd Miller, Jr., Robin Feeherty, Dr. Ann Russek and Mary Simon.

Sadly, next Saturday, we say good bye to long-time parishioner Ollie Garger. Fr. Rich Creason will celebrate a memorial mass at 11 am here at Most Holy Trinity on Saturday, Oct. 29th. Luncheon to follow. Dear Ollie, friend to so many, may you rest gently in God's loving arms and enjoy eternal peace.

The parish will provide the repast meal for the Garger family. Anyone that can provide a covered dish or serving assistance please contact Donna Lindsay at 482-2526. Thank you.
